The convulsion of a volcanic nature which Spain is experiencing of late, reminds one of the experiences of Tammany hall.

There still comes encouraging news that Mr. Norcross is far ahead in the race for the speakership. The popular sentiment is that he is the best man for the place and this will elect him.

Here is another instance in which the pen is mightier than the sword: "General Grant's famous sword is in some danger of being sold for debt, while his pen is earning him a handsome income."

Mr. Cleveland goes to Buffalo on Jackson's day—January 8—where he will have a public reception. He will remain there one week, then return to Albany where he will remain till he starts for Washington.

Mr. Harold Chambers, of New York, married his father's widow, on New Year's day. The groom is 20, the bride is 45, the former is worth nothing, but the latter is worth half a million. It is a match that disgusts the sensible people of New York.

General Grant has been examined by five eminent physicians, all of whom pronounce him completely broken down physically. Several bankers and other men of large means in New York, Philadelphia, and other places, have subscribed a sufficient sum to relieve him of pecuniary embarrassment.

They have a queer way of doing things out in Arizona territory. They had a funeral in a mining town a few days since and the pall-bearers quarreled and fought all the way to the cemetery, and once the solemn train was stopped while a rough and tumble slugging match was indulged in. A local paper which gave a detailed account of the affair, said the only quiet person in the company was the person in the coffin.

On Monday evening, the common council of Keokuk, Iowa, adopted a resolution declaring the prohibitory law a failure, and asking Governor Sherman to call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of repealing the law. Governor Sherman will not do that as he is anxious to try the law for another year, although he has no hope that the law will be of any service to the temperance cause in Iowa.

Widow Hampston, of Paterson, New Jersey, sued John Hinchliffe, a wealthy brewer, for a breach of promise. The court gave her $10,000, but the lawyers took the plum, as $7,000 of the amount went to them. Hinchliffe's children were very much annoyed over their father's conduct, but on New Year's day he mollified them greatly, making them think he was the best father in the world by giving each of them $2,000.

The New York Commercial Bulletin, which is authority on fire losses, estimates the losses by fire in the United States and Canada, for December at $11,000,000 and for the year $112,000,000. This is $15,000,000 more than the average annual loss for the nine years preceding. In December there were 244 fires where the reported loss was $10,000 and upwards. Of these there were twenty-two fires of $100,000 or more, aggregating $2,350,000, or nearly 30 per cent. of the entire fire loss for the month.

It is a little singular that Pittsburg, the city of furnaces, smoke and strikes, had a larger trade in 1884 than for the year previous. There was unusual stagnation in the coal and iron industries, but the business of the city is becoming more diversified every year and the partial paralyses of one branch does not paralyze the whole, as it did formerly. The building industry was particularly active, as much idle capital was diverted in real estate channels during the past year. It is quite likely that if a careful account of stock were taken in other cities and industrial centers besides Pittsburg it would be found that the business depression had been more apparent than real. Diversified industries as well as diversified agriculture, have saved the west from suffering as severely as the east has done by the depression of business during the past year. It never happens that all departments of trade and all branches of industry become paralyzed at the same time, and the city or the county or the state which more thoroughly diversifies its business, will suffer less from business stagnation.

The downfall of John Kelly is a lesson for those whose political influence is in the market. Not six months ago, Kelly and his Tammany braves were a power in New York politics. Although they did not have the power to defeat Cleveland in the Chicago convention, they had the power to defeat him at the polls. When the county democracy, backed by such men as General Bragg, Colonel Vilas, Carter Harrison, and many other prominent democrats, made their relentless attack on Kelly and Tammany, it was time for Tammany to strike for revenge, but it quietly submitted to the insult, and during the campaign was led about with a ring in its nose, made to support Cleveland, its own county ticket defeated, and then kicked out of the democratic party. It was a splendid piece of independence and political strategy on the part of the democrats, and brought about the complete downfall of Kelly and Tammany. Had he been a thorough man, and kicked back when the national convention kicked him, and bolted the nomination, Kelly would have been in all his glory to-day. But he chose to act the part of the coward and the sycophant, and his reward is defeat and humiliation. It serves him right.

The Gazette has been frequently asked what compensation the British members of parliament receive. Members of parliament serve their constituents for the honor there is in it, and not for pay, and therefore do not draw salaries. The salaries paid to legislative bodies in different countries will prove interesting to the reader: "In Hungary each member of the imperial legislative body receives for every day of the session about $2.40, besides $400 annually for lodgings; in Austria about $5 a day during the session, France pays her senators and deputies about $2,250 per annum; Holland about $850 per annum and traveling expenses; Belgium, $84 a month during the session; Norway about $3.30 a day and traveling expenses; Portugal $2.50 per diem. Members of the Canadian parliament receive, for every session lasting over a month, $1,000 and 10 cents mileage; Brazil gives to her senators $1,800 for the session, and to the representatives $1,200 and traveling expenses; Mexico allows the members of both houses $1,000 per annum; the Argentine Republic even goes as high as $3,500; and in the United States, both senators and members of the house of representatives receive $5,000 annually, with mileage at 20 cents per mile."

CUPID'S CAPRICES.

AN ORPHAN BOY STRIKES A MATRIMONIAL BONANZA.

Twenty-Three and Sixty-Two—A Fickle Old Man of Boston—Deserted at the Altar—Eloped With the Cook.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Eloise Newman, aged 62 years, and Edward C. Lucas, aged 23 years, were married Tuesday under singular circumstances. It appears that ten years ago, Mrs. Newman was divorced from her husband on the grounds of dissipation and desertion. The groom of to-day was an office-boy in her lawyer's office, only 13 years old at the time. Mrs. Newman formed an attachment for the youth, and as he was an orphan and boarding among strangers, she induced him to come and live with her, she being without children. They were often seen together, but no idea of marriage was entertained by their acquaintances. Tuesday the marriage was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Newman. The friends of the latter say her object in marrying Lucas was a desire to leave him her fortune, which is estimated at $100,000. Mrs. Newman has several sisters and a brother residing out west whom she has not spoken to for many years. She was afraid if she left her fortune to Lucas without marrying him her relatives would try and break the will, alleging undue influence. Lucas has been acting as her business manager for ten years. He is a fine-looking young man, and was reared in an orphan asylum here, having been a foundling. Mrs. Newman is of excellent family and stands high in the community.

How a Millionaire of Eighty-five Wooed, Won and Jilted a Widow of Thirty.

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—James Dashon, a millionaire bachelor, stock broker, aged 85, for thirty years prominently known on State street, is sued for $100,000 damages for breach of promise by Mrs. Lillian S. Walker, of Dedham, Mass., a widow 30 years old, who comes of a wealthy Baltimore family, and is highly educated and accomplished. She married at 18 a southern gentleman, who died some years ago, leaving her a childless widow. She removed from Baltimore to New York city and in 1881 came to Boston. Being in reduced circumstances she resided with relatives on Beacon hill and supported herself by copying, painting, drawing and writing poetry for magazines. Dashon met her by chance and soon became an ardent wooer. In the summer of 1882 she consented to become his wife. A week before the appointed wedding-day he fell suddenly ill and the marriage was postponed. She nursed him through his illness and the day was again set; but just a week before its arrival he again fell ill. The lady now became suspicious, and demanded an explanation. Dashon told her that he could not keep his engagement; hence the suit. Dashon claims that the whole affair is an attempt at blackmail.

A Very Uncertain Young Man.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 7.—Richard H. Sawtelle, a handsome, well-appearing young man, came to Canisteo from the west in 1883, and at once entered into society. Having an excellent voice, he was engaged to sing in the Baptist church choir. Among those who sang with him was Miss Carrie Smith, a bright, vivacious young lady, daughter of one of the leading families, and a belle of the village. She and Sawtelle became acquainted and a few months ago it was announced that they were engaged. The ceremony was to be performed on New Year's day, and many friends of the prospective bride gathered to witness it. The time fixed for the ceremony arrived, but Sawtelle did not appear, and a messenger failed to find him. It was feared at first that he had met with foul play, but it is now thought that he basely deserted his bride at the altar and left for parts unknown. Miss Smith is prostrated by the blow.

Gone with the Knight of the Kettle.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Jan. 7.—The wife of George W. Wells, proprietor of a restaurant in this city, eloped Tuesday night with a man named Rice, who has been cooking for Wells. She is aged 24, and had been married six years. Wells can assign no reason for her departure, as they had lived in apparent happiness. She is from Virden, Ills.

Capture of a Bad Cashier.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—David E. Swan, ex-cashier of the Northern Pacific railroad at St. Paul, who disappeared July 13, 1884, after committing forgeries and embezzlements aggregating $51,000, was captured Tuesday by Pinkerton's detectives at Sutton's Bay, Leenaw county, Michigan, where he was employed under the alias of D. T. Eddington as confidential clerk of W. S. Johnson, the wealthy lumber shipper of Milwaukee. Swan had so completely buried his identity that his whereabouts have been unknown to all but a few members of a secret society to which he belonged, and through whom he was kept in communication with his family. Swan was a protege of Henry Villard's, and was formerly well known in society circles of New York and Newark, N. J. He will be taken back to St. Paul at once. A special from Traverse City, Grand Traverse county, says that Eddington had just been elected prosecuting attorney of that county.

A Big Thing in Tin.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Five of the largest tin warehouses of the city consolidated on Jan. 1 under the name of the Central Stamping company, viz: James Aikman & Co., R. Ketcham & Co., F. Haberman, the Lalance & Grosjean Manufacturing company, and the St. Louis Stamping company. A member of an outside firm says the new company has already advanced prices about 20 per cent., but as there are twenty-six other houses in the trade in this city alone, no monopoly can be obtained in the trade.

Emerald Grove.

—Rev. S. Lugg, presiding elder, preached an able discourse last Sunday evening and conducted the quarterly meeting services.

—News of the death of Mr. Jas. Richardson, of Milton, was received here last week and much regret expressed. Mr. Richardson was pastor of the M. E. church here from October 1880, to October 1882, and won the respect and confidence of the whole community by his fidelity and devotion to his work.

—Don't forget the social at the Congregational parsonage on Friday evening next.

—E. B. Humphrey, of Waterloo, Wis. was a pleasant caller on his many friends in this community last Monday. Come again "Em" you are always welcome.

—Miss Lelia Goodrich returned home on Wednesday last from Sharon, where she was visiting with Miss Maud Filkins.

—In answer to invitations a house full of young people gathered at the residence of Mr. Robert Lamb's on Friday evening. Time went quickly in games of various kinds until 10 o'clock when the spacious dining room was thrown open showing tables of eatables which the most delicate palate could relish. After doing justice to the repast the company tarried until the "small" wee" hours stole on telling them of the coming morn; when all dispersed highly pleased and no doubt will respond promptly to another call at some future day.

—Miss Nellie Squire returned to the Whitewater Normal school this week.

—A full supply of rubber coats, hats and boots at the lowest living prices at W. D. Hastings.

—Our neighbor Hanthorn being duly installed as county sheriff, makes a vacancy on the farm, which his son Dwane will try and fill. We will miss you George, but not forget you. If, when in town our eye should grow dim, our head weary and our step uncertain, we will wander down by the river side and he no doubt will gladly take us in.

—Our teacher invited his school to spend an evening with him last week. A few outsiders were also invited to help the children have a good time. At an early hour about seventy in all assembled at the pleasant home of Wm. Duthie. All seemed to enjoy themselves and about 10 o'clock lunch was served while the enjoyment continued. Mr. McGregor and his cousins tried to make it pleasant for all and we think they succeeded admirably.

A TRIP TO SUPPER.

The rains descended, and the floods came,
And the snow had melted away,
When lo! there rolled across the lane,
A river mighty to stay.

'Tween the Store and Heller's 'twas one vast sea,
And men turned pale with fear,
For they had no Ark and could not see,
Did the darkness black and drear.

So they stood on the banks and looked across,
With wistful eyes and fear,
Doubting what to do and fearing the loss
Of their supper, which seemed so dear.

Though Heller had offered to send his cow,
The boys didn't like the team:
So finally one more brave than the rest,
Volunteered to wade the stream.

Then Frank took Greg on his back and started—
'Twas a wonderful load "you bet!"—
For he staggered along, while Greg brokenhearted,
Cried, "Keep up—don't drop me yet!"

Behind was Hastings with lantern and cane,
Coat-tail pinned up, umbrella outspread,
Determined to win or die good game,
Chasing Frank and Greg ahead.

At last through the darkness loomed up the shore,
Mid fog and wind and storm.
At Heller's arriving all forlorn,
They ate and laughed o'er things of yore,
As they never laughed before.

When through, the great procession stern,
Procured the flood to wade,
While Heller stood at the door and prayed
For its quick and safe return.

His prayer was answered—do you know
By faith, or words? not faith, O no—
By words, and Frank will tell you so.

TEN MILLION ACRES

OF THE PUBLIC DOMAIN INVOLVED IN A FORFEITURE.

The Senate Passes a Bill Forfeiting a Land Grant—Correcting an Injustice in the Pension Laws—General Washington News.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan 7.—The house bill forfeiting the unearned portion of the Northern Pacific land grant in Oregon passed the senate, Tuesday night, by a viva voce vote. A running debate was spent on the measure all the afternoon, Senator Morgan, of Alabama, pressing an amendment to permit all cases arising from settlement of this grant to be taken into court and settled, instead of having them adjusted under the act of congress. This amendment was lost by 26 to 14. Senator Lapham said that the United States proposed to be court, judge and jury in taking this land from the railroad company. Senator Blair spoke in behalf of the bondholders of the Northern Pacific, who, he said, were unprotected by the forfeiture and should at least have a notice of the inability of the railroad company to finish its road and earn its grant. When such notice had been given the bondholders might by due process of law possess themselves of the road and protect their bonds by themselves building the tract and earning the grant. The bill returns to the house for concurrence on Senator Dolph's amendment, providing that all settlers in good faith at the time of the passage of the bill should be treated as settlers under the homestead law and be given patents for their purchases. Any settler who is not entitled to enter or acquire lands in the grant under existing law is to be permitted to buy not exceeding 160 acres at $1.25 an acre. The price of even numbered sections in the grant is reduced to $1.25 an acre. The original bill provides for the forfeiture of all the lands adjacent to and coterminous with the uncompleted portions of the Northern Pacific railroad, both on the main line and branches. Its provisions apply to that portion of the main line from Wallula, W. T., to Portland, Ore., a distance of 214 miles, and to the uncompleted part of the branch line from Ainsworth to Puget's Sound, W. T., a distance of about 180 miles. Its passage will restore to settlement 10,000,000 acres of land now covered by the grant to the Northern Pacific Railroad company, and release from withdrawals from settlement made by the interior department for indemnity purposes 2,200,000 acres more.

Fleecing Pensioners.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 7.—The looseness of legislative methods in congress for settling disputes between the two branches has often been the cause of very bad legislation, and a case of this kind has just been brought to notice by which the soldiers of the late war have lost thousands of dollars in fees for the collection of pensions. The trouble originated in the conference committee on the general pension appropriation bill which was passed about ten months ago. The house adopted a section designed to prevent claim agents from fleecing pension claimants, of which grievous complaints came up from every state where many pensioners reside. The action prescribed a larger fee than had been allowed by previous statutes partly because it was supposed a better class of persons might be induced to go into the business of collecting claims if better remuneration was allowed, and the claimants might escape exactions and negligence of their interests, about which complaint had been made. The bill was amended and then sent to a conference committee, which in some way changed it so that shrewd lawyers could get about double the fees they had previously obtained. The house Tuesday proceeded to correct this evil and a stringent provision was adopted. An important amendment offered by Everhart of Pennsylvania, was also adopted, which provides that applicants for pensions shall be presumed to have been sound when they entered the service, but that proof of disability may be taken in rebuttal. This shifting of the burden of proof from the individual to the government removes one very serious impediment between pension claimants and the treasury. The bill as passed permits an agent in the state in which a claimant resides to charge a fee of $25, but allows agents in the District of Columbia to charge only $10 in any case, and prohibits country agents dividing fees with agents in this district under penalty of fine and imprisonment.

Mississippi River Improvements.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 7.—The report of the Mississippi river commission was laid before the house Tuesday. The commission recommends a more extended system of levees commencing at the lower end of the river and extending upward, including the mouths of the principal tributaries. The estimates for the next fiscal year are as follows: Continuing surveys, $100,000; salaries and traveling expenses, $100,000; continuing improvement from Des Moines rapids to Illinois river, $300,000; Illinois river to Cairo, $1,000,000; Cairo to head of passes, $7,000,000; harbor at Columbus, Ky., $80,000; at Hickman, Ky., $270,000; at Greenville, Miss., $80,000; at Vicksburg, Miss., $20,000; at Natchez, Miss., $70,000; at New Orleans, $688,000.

The commissioners report an unexpended balance on hand of $522,630. The report was ordered printed and referred to the river and harbor committee.

PEWS AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Heavy Shrinkage at the Annual Sale—Comparative Figures.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The annual sale of pews in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Tuesday night, netted $27,355, against $31,830 last year. The amounts realized have steadily decreased since 1875, the year of Mr. Beecher's trial, when the receipts were $85,997, the largest ever reached. The highest bid, Tuesday night, for first choice of a pew was by R. T. Bush, who paid $800. H. B. Claflin paid $560 for second choice, and S. V. White and E. H. Vanlingen $400 for third and fourth choice respectively. The bids then dropped to $350, $325, $300, $290, etc., down to $1 premium for the last pew. The total rentals amounted to $41,857, and premiums $15,393. A considerable falling off was expected, owing to the hard times, and it is difficult to estimate how much of the decrease in receipts is due to dissatisfaction on account of Mr. Beecher's recent course in politics.

The Chicago University Case.

CHICAGO, Ills., Jan. 7.—The long protracted litigation between the Union Life Insurance company, of Maine, and the Chicago university was ended Tuesday, Judge Blodgett of the United States district court decreeing a foreclosure of the mortgage of $150,000 held by the company for money loaned. The judge also decided that the judgment must include all of the property of the Chicago Astronomical society, which is an offspring of the university. The total amount of the judgement with accrued interest and attorney's fees amounts up to $310,000, while the nominal value of the college building and assets which must go at forced sale is placed at half a million. The decision was listened to with intense and solemn interest by prominent clergymen representing many denominations. Hon. J. Young Scammon, who built up the observatory presented it with a valuable telescope and other property valued at tens of thousands of dollars, vehemently protested against such property becoming subject to the judgment. Judge Blodgett finally consented to allow him a rehearing.

After that he will give an exhibition in Chicago and spend a month in New Orleans, where a solid fight will be arranged. Early in April he sails for England, accompanied by Pete McCoy and Jack Dempsey, and will give exhibitions throughout England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, giving all who desire it a chance to meet him. About Sept. 1 the party will sail for Australia, where the biggest fight in the history of pugilism will be arranged with the celebrated Farnham, with stakes of $10,000 a side. The party will return to the United States about Jan. 1, 1886.

A Natural Question.

We find the subjoined passage in the leading article of one of our foreign contemporaries: "The king of Siam only showed himself in public once a year, and now, after holding him for the first time was beheaded, and the second time impaled." We are naturally curious to know what might have happened to the man who looked at the king of Siam for the third time.

The Abundant Author.

[Philadelphia News.]

Last spring that venerable but perennial periodical, Youth's Companion, offered prizes of $500 and $250 for the first and second best boys', girls', humorous and adventurous stories.

These prizes have now been awarded. It is curious to note the distribution of the authors. Two live in Denver, Colo., one each in Indiana, Maine, Connecticut, Montreal and London, while one hails from this city, Mr. Frank R. Stockton, who, it is needless to say, gets the first prize for humor.

It will thus be seen that the west supplies the larger number of prize winners. This is not surprising to any one who has watched the intellectual growth of that section. For example, it may be said that that admirably well-edited periodical, The Chicago Current, prints a list of over 400 writers who have contributed to its two volumes, and of these, probably 80 per cent. are westerners, whose work has not been seen elsewhere, though it compares well with any eastern periodical.

But the most surprising thing about The Youth's Companion is that no less than 7,000 manuscripts were sent in for competition.

This means that one in every 3,000 of the grown men and women of this country, or nearly that proportion, have entered the field of authorship. Surely no one can say that money reward does not stimulate literary production, if it does not develop genius.

The figures are still more surprising when it is considered that even the most widely circulated periodical reaches only a limited number of people. Other competitions of a similar character are going on now which engage the literary ability of other thousand, and it would be idle to attempt to enumerate the thousands of volunteer contributions to the newspapers. Probably, if the figures could be reached, it would be found that one person in every dozen is or has been seized with a desire to perpetuate his or her thoughts in type. With such a literary instinct as this planted in the people there is little need for bewailing the future of American authorship, as so many barnacle-eyed critics do. When our Shakespeare is wanted he will come, and it is likely from the rowdy west.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "96 Chestnut St., New York, Oct. 20, 1882.

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,

HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

Right to the point

The Rev. J. E. Searles, of New York, is one of the most widely-known and highly esteemed of Methodist ministers.

Mr. Searles says: "I am impressed that it is a duty I owe to those afflicted with Rheumatism or Neuralgia, to say that a remedy has been discovered that is indeed a marvelous success. My son was greatly afflicted with Rheumatism, and suffered so severely that, at times, he was obliged to have morphine injected into his arm to get relief. While in this condition he discovered a remedy which effected immediate relief, and a permanent cure. He has since furnished it to many others with the same result. I have also furnished it to a number of persons suffering with Rheumatism, and the result has been immediate relief, and a permanent cure. Among others, I gave it to Rev. Wm. P. Corbit, pastor of the George St. M. E. Church, New Haven, Conn., who was suffering greatly with this terrible disease. I will give you his own words as written to my son, wishing him to publish the fact for the benefit of others suffering with the same disease."

What Mr. Corbit Says:

"New Haven, July 24, 1882.

"Mr. Searles: Dear Sir:—I wish to say for the benefit of all who are suffering with Inflammatory Rheumatism, that your medicine is infallible. I suffered for two months the most excruciating torture; lost 35 pounds of flesh, and was not out of my house for a month; I heard of your remedy, and was almost instantly relieved by it. If there is a specific for diseases of any kind, you're most certainly is for Inflammatory Rheumatism in its severest form.

"Yours most respectfully, WM. P. CORBIT,
"Pastor George St. M. E. Church, New Haven, Conn."

POLITICS IN THE STATES.

The Illinois Situation.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 7.—The situation in politics here is a very uncertain one. On both sides there are men disposed to give trouble, and until their votes are cast in the legislature it is mere speculation to say what will be done. Representative Haines, Democrat, who wants to be speaker of the house, attended the caucus Tuesday afternoon and evening, but now declares he will act as an independent. It was thought certain that he would receive the caucus nomination, and it was a surprise all round that he did not.

The uncertain Republicans are Ruger and Sittig, of Chicago. Ruger has locked himself up ever since he has been here, and will not say anything, and Sittig has not made his appearance, and there were rumors that he would not act with his party.

At the Democratic caucus Cronkrite was selected for speaker by a vote of 39, to 32 for Haines; clerk, R. A. D. Wilbanks; first assistant, Charles F. Strube, second assistant, C. V. Jaquith, third assistant, G. C. Sanders; enrolling and engrossing clerk, C. P. Stokes. For the senate: President pro tem., Henry Salter; secretary, W. E. Jones; first assistant, D. E. Hughes; second, Daniel Donohue; bill clerk, D. B. Turney; enrolling and engrossing clerk, William Steers; first assistant, Charles M. Ward; second, C. A. M. Schlossholtz; postmaster, J. J. Funkhouser; assistant, E. S. Yentzer.

The house Republicans nominated Charles E. Fuller for speaker; clerk, W. A. Dougherty; first assistant, B. D. Dawson; second assistant, W. C. Dewey; enrolling clerk, J. A. Reeves; doorkeeper, C. Rost; postmaster, J. W. January. The senate Republicans nominated W. J. Campbell for president pro tem; secretary, L. F. Watson; bill clerk, Will H. Whitney; sergeant-at-arms, F. A. Freer; enrolling clerk, D. W. Gates; postmaster, J. A. Hunter.

The Ohio Legislature in Session.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 7.—The adjourned session of the Sixty-sixth general assembly was called to order at 3 p. m., Tuesday. Both branches were opened by prayer. A bill was introduced in the senate to repeal all whisky legislation on the statutes.

Other Legislative Doings.

The Nebraska legislature convened Tuesday, and Hon. A. W. Field, of Lincoln, was elected speaker.

The New York legislature organized on Tuesday by the election of George Z. Erwin speaker of the house, and Dennis McCarthy president of the senate. The governor sent in his resignation, which was a document of less than half a dozen lines. His successor, Governor Hill, sent his message to the legislature. In it Mr. Hill pays a warm tribute to Governor Cleveland, saying that his administration has more than met the just expectations of the state, and has been noted for its honesty and efficiency, and expressing the hope in behalf of the people of the state that in his new sphere Mr. Cleveland may meet with the highest degree of success. The legislature adjourned until the 13th inst.

The Republicans of the Michigan legislature nominated Newcomb Clark for speaker of the house, and the Democrats J. A. Brant.

The Minnesota Legislature met and elected John L. Gibbs speaker of the house.

A Great Estate in Litigation.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 7.—A suit has been brought by the children of Gen. William S. Harney against the general and his wife, the late Mrs. St. Cyr, asking that a receiver be appointed for the property of the family. While it has caused a great deal of gossip, it is no great surprise. In the suit, as filed, John M. Harney, the Viscomte Dr. Thury and his wife, nee Annie B. Harney, and the Comte de None and his wife, nee Eliza Harney, join in asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the property mortgaged by the Harney family to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company to secure a loan of $350,000.

The bringing of this suit throws into court a portion of the vast Mullanphy estate which is worth $1,200,000, and which is held by Gen. Harney. The suit grows out of the marriage of Gen. Harney to his housekeeper, Mrs. Lizzie St. Cyr, to which his children objected. The two were married very unexpectedly at the cathedral on Nov. 12 last, after filing a marriage settlement, in which the general conveyed to Mrs. St. Cyr one-half of his own property, worth about $100,000, and one-half of the income from the property in which he held a life interest, an arrangement which should give Mrs. Harney about $50,000 a year during the life of the general.

The King of the Congo Regions.

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—It is reported that the Duke Philip of Saxe-Cobourg has been agreed upon as king of the new Congo state.

England has proposed in the West African conference that so long as the importation of spirits into the Niger country is prohibited, they shall also be excluded from the freedom of transit guaranteed for other goods on the Niger. The delegates have decided that any power wishing to annex fresh territory in the vicinity of the Congo or Niger shall first notify the other powers, who shall decide as to the propriety of such accessions. The opposition by France to the American proposal for the neutrality of the Congo is generally displeasing to the delegates of the other powers who will seek to arouse public opinion in favor of the plan.

Will Go into the Earthquake District.

ROBBING THE STATE.

A LARGE LEAK DISCOVERED IN THE VIRGINIA TREASURY.

The Drain Been Going On for Seven or Eight Years—Developments of the Investigation—Over $100,000 Scooped by Scoundrels.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 5.—Recent developments in the defalcations discovered in the office of the auditor of public accounts of the state indicate that the loss will hardly be less than $100,000, and some of those engaged in the investigation of the affair say they will not be surprised if the evidence proves that it is $150,000. The special committee appointed by the house of delegates to investigate and report upon the defalcation have been at work for some weeks. They have heard a good deal of testimony, and collected much valuable evidence, the burden of much of which shows that for seven or eight years various sums of money paid into the office on account of taxes have not been credited on the books. For a time it was thought these irregularities were confined to the accounts of the court clerks, but later developments show that they exist in several others. The latest discovery that has been made in this case shows that a check for $1,820 paid by the Western Union Telegraph company for taxes assessed against them was not credited on the books of the auditor's office, although the check had been deposited and collected. In another instance the Merchants' National bank, of this city, paid $800 for taxes due the state. In both of these cases, as well as in all of the others in which any irregularities have been discovered, the money or checks were paid to W. R. Smith, the late first auditing clerk in the auditor's office. Smith is in jail, where he has been for the past two or three weeks, awaiting an investigation by the grand jury of the criminal court. He has employed able counsel, and will make a vigorous defense. One of the complications of this case is that all of the money alleged to have been diverted was paid in by the several taxpayers in plain violation of the law, and was not therefore the property of the commonwealth. It is an admitted fact that by a sort of general consent, as was the habit, all of these accounts were paid into the auditor's office directly, instead of being paid into the state depositories to her credit. It is a question now whether the loss is to fall upon the taxpayers or the commonwealth, and it will have to be decided by the courts. These irregularities cover a period during which the Democrats and the Republicans were in control of the state government. They are spoken of as the heaviest that have ever occurred in the history of the commonwealth. Their magnitude and the manner in which they took place, it is believed, will induce the governor to call the legislature in extra session. It is confidently expected that that body will be called to meet about April or May next to take steps in regard to this matter.

The Cincinnati Election Inquiry.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 7.—The congressional committee examining into the appointment of United States deputy marshals in this city at the last October election, resumed the examination of Marshal Wright Tuesday morning. The general method of questioning was to read the names of deputies appointed, one by one, and ask the marshal if he knew these men, where they lived, and who recommended them, and then Mr. Follett would ask if the witness did not know that they were thieves, murderers, ex-convicts, just out of jail or workhouse, charged with crimes, etc. The witness in most cases could not recollect the persons asked about, nor who recommended them, but said it was possible some were appointed who were not recommended at all, though his aim was to get men qualified for the work. In reference to one colored man he said he knew he was reported to be a bad man, but did not believe reports were well founded. At any rate, he was a man well qualified to meet the emergency which called for the appointment of deputies, namely, the danger of repeating. He was aware that some of his men were not strictly pious, but in making his appointments he had regard to the elements his deputies would have to deal with. He had never heard a single instance where any deputy had in any way prevented any citizen from casting a legal vote. Witness repeated that he made a great effort to get good, efficient men, and most of them were such.

The Dangers of Natural Gas.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 7.—The citizens living along the route of the different natural gas supply mains, in this city and Allegheny, are becoming greatly alarmed at the many leakages discovered. Monday night the gas escaping from one of the south side mains filled the cellar under Hussey, Howe & Co.'s works, crept through the floor, and ignited at the stove. An explosion followed, destroying everything in the cellar, ruined the office and set fire to the building. The firemen had scarcely gotten away when another explosion occurred which tore a great hole in the street and again set the building on fire. A movement is now on foot by residents to compel the various natural gas companies to give bonds to cover possible damage that may result from this cause.

Another Woman Who Won't Talk.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Gray, wife of Samuel Gray, suspected of the murder of the young woman whose body was recently found in an ash heap in the sub-cellar of the Carleton house in New York, was arrested in this city Monday night, and is now confined in the Fourth district station-house. Gray is serving a long sentence in the New Jersey state prison for attempting to murder the woman who was arrested, who admits that she is Gray's wife, but who positively refuses to tell anything about herself or her husband until she is compelled to do so in court.

Wants a Receiver Appointed.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 7.—The circuit court has granted the application of John D. Davis, representing a number of the bondholders of the Harrison Wire works, for the appointment of a trustee, and Isaac M. Mason was appointed. Mason immediately instituted suit against the original trustees, and prays for the appointment of a receiver, sale of the property, etc. The court reserved its decision.

Parnell Appears To Be "Boss."

DUBLIN, Jan. 7.—Six delegates favorable to O'Connor, Mr. Parnell's candidate, have been chosen from Tipperary to the second convention to be held at Thurles, last Friday's convention there having been declared by Mr. Parnell to be irregular. The O'Ryan, or opposition, candidates were all defeated. Mr. Parnell was in conference with Mr. O'Connor Tuesday.

The fire losses in the United States and Canada for the year 1884 are placed at $112,000,000, more than $15,000,000 in excess of the annual average for nine years. The loss during the month of December was $12,000,000.

SARAH BERNHARDT'S PASSION.

What Sardou Has to Say of the Noted Actress—Her Violent Rage.

[Paris Cor. New York Tribune.]

When Sardou was asked whether Sarah Bernhardt was playing tricks, he said: "I think not. I have had great experience with women of her class, and I think I know when they are not counterfeiting, and when they are acting a part. She was nearer to a demon than any woman I ever saw when I went to call on her yesterday. She is not, observe, young; she knows that her power as a woman—I do not speak of her prestige as an actress—is on the wane, and she finds herself deserted by a man who had acquired over her the most absolute ascendency that love can secure. He might insult her, trample upon her feelings, give the rein to any amount of ill-humor, take any liberty before strangers in talking at her, criticise her sharply, and yet not cool, in any wise, her passion. She was magnetized by his powerful masculinity. He was disappointed that she didn't carry all before her in England as Lady Macbeth in his translation of Shakespeare's tragedy. So was she. Indeed, she was annihilated by the coldness with which she was received. She is a creature entirely without ballast and exaggerates everything. She is like one possessed of an evil spirit when she gives herself up to hatred, which she often does. The spirit lodged in her rends her and can not be exorcised. Although she does not shrink from doing under all circumstances just as she likes, she can not half express those violent emotions even when she gets into fits of choking rage."

Sardou says that Sarah has the temperament of the Jews of Jerusalem between the nativity and the taking of that city by Titus. She has a notion that she should be a law unto herself, or indeed that she should be subject to no law except that of her own whimsical will. She is, though convent-bred, utterly without religious feeling or belief and yet very superstitious. Her superstitions are the reverse of consoling. She will begin no task, enter into no engagement, attend no rehearsal, set out on no journey on a Friday or on the 19th of any month. With that, she is an avowed atheist and ready to give the fullest possible value to Richepin's "Blasphemies" by reciting them in her richest and sweetest tones. Sardou claims tender pity for Sarah. No doubt he is right. Those effects she produces on the stage exhaust vitality with terrible speed. All artists, literary or other, charm through cerebral congestion. When they most delight they are most consumed by the inner flame to which they owe communicative warmth.

Sarah's affairs are in utter disorder. When she earns a lot of money she flings it away. She overrates her strength to make engagements which she is unable to keep, and gets herself entangled in ruinous lawsuits. Sardou visited her just after Richepin had let her know that a deep gulf was irrevocably opened between them, and that he was going to Newfoundland. She was rolling on the floor, gnashing her teeth, breaking and biting everything that came in her way, screaming, sobbing, imprecating, and wishing herself annihilated. When her nervous power was spent she was "like a rag" and implored her visitor to have compassion on her and not press her to rehearse the character of Theodora—the Brizantine empress, who had been a circus-rider and professionally gallant before the Emperor Justinian was bewitched by her and married her.

DISFIGURING Humors

HUMILIATING Eruptions

Itching and Burning TORTURES.

I have tried for eleven years to have my wife cured of a terrible skin disease. The CUTICURA REMEDIES (CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally, and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally) have done in six weeks what I have tried for eleven years to have done. You shall have the particulars as soon as I can give them to you, and as we are so well known in this part of the country, it will benefit you, and the remedies will cure all who use them.

MAYSVILLE, KY. CHAS. H. WHITE.

BLOTCHES CURED.

I used your CUTICURA REMEDIES for Blotches, and am completely cured, to my inexpressible joy. CUTICURA SOAP is the best I have ever used, and to the profession it is invaluable for cleansing the skin, thereby removing all "cork" grease, paint, and all the stuff used by them, leaving the skin pure and white and soft. My greatest pleasure is in recommending such an article.

—County Clerk Williams has appointed John Menzies, the good natured and efficient clerk of the municipal court, to be deputy county clerk.

—The county board of supervisors will meet in the county clerk's office on Tuesday, January 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m., to attend to county legislation.

—The annual meeting of the Congregational church society was held last evening, at which Messrs. J. C. Echlin and A. C. Rice were elected trustees.

—A Janesville young lady who went to New Orleans a few days ago to see the exposition and other sights, was taken "homesick" on her arrival in the Crescent city, and returned home on the first train after her recovery, claiming that she had seen enough of southern life and the Sunny South.

—To-day, January 7th, was the time set, (unforseen delays excepted) for the new steam fire engine to be here. Information has been received from the builders that the engine will not be shipped until the 13th inst., owing to the delay, caused by cold weather, in drying the paint on the running gear.

—The stockholders of the Janesville Boot company held their annual meeting yesterday and elected the following officers:—President, Alex. Richardson; vice president, E. A. Smith; secretary, M. G. Jeffris; treasurer, J. W. Nash; directors, Alex Richardson, E. C. Smith, M. G. Jeffris, J. W. Nash and Danie Clow.

—Quartermaster Thor. Judd, of the first regiment, has resigned, and Governor Rusk has commissioned Joseph W. Richmond, of Whitewater, to fill the vacancy. Lieut. Judd has kept his resignation very quiet, and this announcement of the fact will be a surprise to his many friends not only in this city but in the first regiment.

—Michael Birmingham, employed in the Shopbell & Norris shops on the race fell from a pile of lumber this forenoon striking on his head, and when picked up was insensible. He was taken to his home, corner of Washington and High streets, and cared for. It is not known how badly he was injured, but it is hoped he will soon recover.

—The fourth annual convention of the officers of the Wisconsin national guard will open in the assembly chamber at Madison this evening at 7:30 o'clock, and close Thursday evening. Among the papers and addresses to be delivered we notice "Non commissioned officers' schools—Lieutenant M. A. Newman, of Janesville." Lieut. Newman went to Madison to-day to attend the above meeting.

—The Madison Journal: "Secretary Babbitt, of the State Agricultural society, prides himself on the possession of a handsome herd of short-horn cattle, two four-year-olds from which, when placed upon the scales a few days since, weighed 2,120 and 1,860 pounds respectively. In view of the fact that they are from milking stock, this weight is certainly very good."

—The remains of the late B. B. Harrison arrived in the city on the 8:40 train last night and were taken to the residence of Mr. George Scarcliff, on South Franklin street. The funeral service was held at Christ church at two o'clock this afternoon, where a large concourse of people assembled to pay their last respects to the deceased, who, for many years was an honored resident of this city. The Rev. C. M. Pullen, rector of Christ church officiated, and music was furnished by a quartet composed of Miss Lizzie Warren, Mrs. C. E. Moseley, Mr. Herbert Baker, and Mr. Smith, with Miss Ada Pond at the organ. The pall-bearers were J. Blonsdale, J. Lloyd, G. C. McLean, W. Winkley, S. Hutchinson and W. Baines. The large number of flowers which decorated the casket and the front of the chancel, were tender expressions of respect and sympathy from those in our city who had long known and honored their deceased friend. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community. The remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for burial, under charge of Janesville Lodge No. 55, A. F. and A. M.

—Coming down Court street hill about half-past eleven o'clock one cold night last week, was noticed one of the city fathers, with his wife on one arm and another lady on the other. In company with them was two or three other couples, and from the conversation of the party it was evident that they were on their way home from a church sociable. When the aldermanic part of the procession turned in at the home gate they noticed that a new neighbor's house next door was brightly illuminated, and wondered if the family were sick or celebrating a wedding. The mystery was soon explained, when in answer to a gentle tap at their own door there appeared some relatives from Chicago who had arrived on the 8:45 train and finding the house abandoned had sought refuge at the neighbors. The family told them that they thought their friends had gone to a social, and they were loath to be home at any minute. They little realized the fascination of a modern social and so the night wore on. Mutual explanations and apologies made everything satisfactory the next morning and the family are now practicing on soap bubbles which they propose to blow all night at the next church gathering, if necessary to win the first prize.

A Family Reunion.

At a reunion of the family of S. D. Butts, held between Christmas and New Years at the old homestead, near Milton Junction, there were present Mrs. Hannah Cooley, from Douglas county, Minn., Mrs. Anna Fletcher, from Glendive, M. T., A. F. Butts, of North Springfield Mo., Mrs. Hattie Hurn, of Clear Lake, Iowa, G. H. Butts, who resides at the old home, and a number of grand children, to make it lively. This is the first time all of the family that are living have been together in nine years. During that time many changes have taken place, and with our parents old age is drawing on apace We do not wonder, when nearly fifty years have intervened, since father, in company with his brother Daniel, and a Mr. Burr, from Connecticut, walked from Milwaukee to the place where Janesville now stands, and the nearest house east of Janesville was thirty-five miles, Aug. 1, 1836. It is agreed by the family, if all are spared, to have another reunion in four years, at which time our parents will have been married fifty years.

W. T. Vankirk, E. M. Pryzer and S. B. Smith were elected delegates to the grand lodge, which meets in Eau Claire in May.

The meeting concluded, the members repaired to the parlors of Carter & Eastman, proprietors of the Main street restaurant, where a sumptuous banquet had been prepared for the occasion, and which was partaken of with a relish by all, and for an hour or two there was a steady flow of levity, which was heartily enjoyed by all, and the enjoyments of the evening were complete, and will not soon be forgotten by the participants.

The Center of the World's Observation.

The eyes of the world are upon the industrial exposition in the full tide of success in the Cresent City. It was inaugurated on Dec. 16th, with an extraordinary Grand drawing of the famous Louisiana State Lottery, which, by its strict integrity in its management, (on behalf of the noble Charity hospital there) is not the least attraction to visitors. M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., will give any information about the 176th Monthly Drawing, on Tuesday, January 13th, 1885. Be advised in time, therefore.

Grand Opening.

Not of the new stock company skating rink, for that isn't built yet, but of the new wholesale grocery in Nororss' block, on River street. This evening the public are invited to attend the finest grocery opening ever witnessed in Janesville The store 40x80 is filled with as choice a stock of goods as can be found in any city, prices of everything are marked in plain figures, and they present a more attractive display than any museum in the country. Go early and take along a basket for the inducement to buy will be irresistable. All goods retailed at wholesale prices.

Any attempt to produce a flavor in tea or any other country that can surpass Dr. Price's Special flavoring extracts will prove a failure, for Dr. Price's are as fresh and nice as the fruits from which they are made, and cannot be improved. Their superiority consists not only in their fruity order, but also in their delicious taste.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

Notes from the Pen of a Rock County Man.

To the Editor.

MARSHALL, Texas, Jan. 1, 1885.

When we (wife and self) left home, I promised some of our friends that they would hear from us occasionally, through the Gazette.

We left home on Saturday, December 27th, and went to Walworth county, where we were joined by H. A. Johnson and wife. On Monday morning, the 29th inst., to Chicago, from Darien, Walworth county; on the evening of the same day, left Chicago for New Orleans, ticketed by the way of St. Louis—Iron Mountain & Texas Pacific railroad. When we first thought of visiting the exposition at New Orleans, we were anxious to go by the way of Indian Territory or the Nation, as it is called in that territory, a place we had heard much about and was anxious to see, but was unable to procure tickets at Chicago. On our arrival at St. Louis we ascertained that the late rains had washed out a good deal of road bed in Arkansas and we were transferred to the Missouri Pacific, Missouri Kansas & Pacific, and Texas Pacific, passing through a portion of Kansas, and through the Indian country, entering Texas at Dennison then south in Texas as far as Dallas, coming to this place from Dallas this afternoon, having passed over some of the best country and some of the poorest I ever saw. We are now located at Marshall, Texas, stopped by an overflow in the Red river, covering the railroad for many miles; how long we will be here I have no idea, but hope to leave to-day. We have already traveled over 1000 miles and are about four hundred miles from New Orleans. The readers of the Gazette have often heard of people of the north basking in the Sunny south; now I will tell you about our experience in the basking business. When we left home the thermometer stood at 32 above zero and thawing, by the time we got to Chicago on Monday the snow was all gone; it kept thawing and raining all day Monday and Tuesday and while the snow had entirely disappeared before we left Chicago, before we reached St. Louis, the snow lay in huge drifts along the roads and fences, and in southern Kansas we found still more snow—and snow here in the "sunny south;" the thermometer for the last two days has stood from zero to 10 degrees above. The ground, of course, froze hard yesterday at Dallas, Texas; we saw a number of boys skating on ice which looked and felt thick enough to bear a horse.

Our party have all been well and have enjoyed the delays full as well as the travel, and have come to the conclusion that we can enjoy life just as well for a few days in Texas as we can in New Orleans. In some future letter I will give some of my views of the country and the people along our line of travel. We have had plenty of time to look around and inform ourselves, but no time to write.

YOURS,
DANIEL JOHNSON.

Milton.

—The annual dinner of the Seventh Day Baptist church and society occurred last Sunday afternoon, the annual meeting of the society preceding the dinner. There was a very large attendance and all seemed to enjoy the oysters that the good ladies of the society dished up for them. Hon. Mr. Carpenter and wife, of Ashaway, Rhode Island, were present and had an opportunity to meet old friends and form the acquaintance of many new ones. The dinner was a greater success in its social features than any of its predecessors.

—The A. D. Hamilton Post, G. A. R. had a very pleasant gathering last Wednesday evening. It being New Year eve, they wished to commemorate the event and so had a tree loaded with presents for the children of the members of the Post. A pleasing literary programme preceded the distribution of presents and after the presents were plucked a supper was served to which all in attendance did ample justice.

—A. H. Palmiter, of Westerly, R. I., visited Milton friends Sunday. Everybody who knew him was glad to renew their acquaintance.

—Prof. L. Heritage, of the State University faculty, and his wife spent Saturday and Sunday in town visiting as many of their friends as time would permit. The professor and his wife are both in good health, and it was a pleasure for all their Milton friends to clasp hands with them once more.

—The S. D. B. church have just completed a new baptistry in their church. It is located under the pulpit platform and is a useful improvement. Mr. Ingham united with the church last Saturday, and the new baptistry was used in administering the rite of baptism.

—C. E. Crandall and wife returned to Morgan Park, Tuesday.

—The graded school opened Monday, after a vacation of two weeks. Miss Markham, of the intermediate department, resigned her position at the close of the term and returned to her home at Edgerton to engage in another avocation and Miss Maggie Paterson, of Janesville, takes the position vacated by Miss Markham. The other teachers remain in charge of their departments.

—On Monday evening DuLuc lodge No. 322, I. O. O. F., installed their officers for the present year. The ceremonies were under the direction of D. D. G. M. Kenyon, of Janesville, assisted by P. G.'s Winslow and Fathers, of the same place, Stockman of Milton Junction, and Wieglef, of Milton. A large delegation from Milton Junction were present, and at a seasonable hour nearly all in attendance repaired to the Stannard house, where an oyster supper was served, to which all did ample justice. The following were the officers installed: N. G.—A. S. Dunham; V. G.—M. T. Cole; R. S.—S. B. Davy; P. S.—A. C. Stannard; Treasurer—W. W. Clarke; W.—W. P. Clarke; C.—V. Stannard; O. G.—F. P. —Mr. Hutson, with Mr. Patridge, as foreman, has commenced sorting tobacco in the N. W. warehouse.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, of Ashaway, R. I., have been visiting here, the guests of A. B. Spaulding.

—The Normalites returned to their studies last Monday after enjoying a two weeks vacation at their respective homes.

—Mr. Wells Parker, of Rockford, Ill., is visiting friends in this vicinity.

—There was a regular boom in the milling business in this village last Saturday judging from the line of teams that stood in front of the mill. A gentleman in passing was led to inquire if they "shipped the grain down the river from that warehouse."

—Mr. Will Brown, of Edgerton, Minnesota, is visiting his relatives in this vicinity. He will not return to his Minnesota home for a month or two.

—Mrs. Etta Moore, who has lived in this village for some time past started New Year's day for Hastings, Nebraska, where she will visit for a short time; from there she will go to Kansas where she intends to make her future home.

—Miss Cora Spear, of Ashton, D. T., was the guest of Mr. James Cutter's people last week.

—The sporting fraternity in this community indulged in a turkey shoot in this village on Saturday last; there was quite a number of people in attendance and as usual the spectators were considerably in the majority. Eight rounds were fired at an eight inch ring. Distance forty rods. The result was that Mr. Butler Woodbury secured two of the feathered tribe, E. F. Welch two, H. C. Cutter two, and B. H. Welch two. An after dark shut-your-eyes-and-shoot round was fired by a number that were not actively engaged in the day's sport, which resulted in favor of L. Gentle. There will be another "shoot" here on the same grounds on Saturday, the 17th, and all are invited.
